

Quiet gestures that speak out against hate

When hate speech happens in public, people have only moments to respond—and those quick reactions can shape how hate is perceived and whether it's challenged or ignored. But what if speaking out isn't the only way to take a stand?

Together, we'll explore creative, complementary ways to challenge hate in our communities—beyond just words—and reflect on how small actions can help foster more inclusive, resilient spaces.

with Jimena Zapata, PhD

29.04 | 17:00

GSN Seminar Room D00.003

followed by a DIVERSITY HAPPY HOUR
with snacks and drinks!

